

24/7

A Newsletter for the Christian Home

Vol. 4 • No. 6
February 2010
Dr. Steve Christopher

A VALENTINE'S DAY INVITATION

Who:

You, as the special guest of the Host (but, open to everyone who also knows the Host)

What:

A special banquet feast (additional regular meals provided on a daily basis)

When:

February 14 (but actually every day)

Time:

Anytime (actually, all the time, as the Host is ever-present in your life)

Where:

In your heart (and, everywhere you go, as that is where the Host resides)

Why:

To let you know you are loved (just as a gentle reminder, as sometimes you have forgotten this)

How Much:

Free (the Host paid the price on a cross some 2,000 years ago)

For How Long:

Forever (this feast will never end)

What to Wear:

Come as you are (the Host knows the real you, and loves you anyway)

What to Bring:

Just yourself (the Host has all He needs and wants to share it with you)

Who Else is Coming:

All of those who know the Host (feel free to tell others about this fine Host and invite them; the Host won't mind, there is room for all)

What to Expect:

Peace, Joy, Love (that, and a lot more will be provided by the perfect Host)

I guess every day is Valentine's Day for our Heavenly Father and us, His children! Let us follow this example, as we love our children and our families every day just as the Father in Heaven loves us. Let every day be a feast of love in our homes.